Case No. 2:06-CV-164-WKW

[WO]

Request For Inquiry

Whereas Plaintiff in good faith filed civil action allegedly resulting from indifference where showing of an [unwritten prison policy] was the moving force behind the constitutional violation. A United States Magistrate Judge Terry F. Moore wishes to grant the Commissioner of Alabama State Prisons, the warden of the Elmore County Prison in question, and its related health facility, whom's records in number would exceed hundreds of like injuries. Magistrate states; Defendants couldn't know the windows were in such disrepair, (the warden's statement in affidavit). Plaintiff writes with an amputated finger due to guillotine styled windows, and Magistrate states it did not occur;

Pursuant to "A Policy enacted by the defendants, rather
The only Policy relevant to the Claim Pending Herein,
Require that inmates not raise, lower, or adjust windows.
Plaintiff Claim went from Unwritten Policy, To enactment
Of Law. and to add insult to Injury, Plaintiff NEVER OPEN
A window," except to retrieve an amputated Finger 8-3-05.
While its Unfortunate that Dixon (Plaintiff) suffered an Injury to His Finger "While attempting to raise a window" is Probly
The sickening, and most malignant miscarriage of Justice
Inactive, as accepted, and adopted. A dark secret that Light of truth and Justice Cannot allow. a Plain error,
And manifested grossly Calculated, Couldn't Possibly Wait in Prematureness. Order, that on or before
August 5, 2008 the Parties may File Objection; Clearly
The Stillborn wouldn't enjoy Life, Plaintiff Filed Objection
To the United States Magistrate Judge Terry F. Moore
Recommendation; Final Judgment Done this 30th day of July 2008. Plaintiff would Request Inquiry, Inquires as to Any Listed Litigation Filed, with respect to Magistrate
Terry Moore Negligent Handling. Be Copied, and

 CASE# 2:06-CV-164-WKW [WO]

DEFENDANTS OF the above styled Cause Dubbed Plaintiff
 A troublesome writ writer, excuse my styling, Transferred Around, and around again. However, Plaintiff did File
 Motion For Objection to Magistrate Recommendation at Elmore Correctional Facility. Magistrate state, that [unwritten Policy] is in effect to this very day.

I Plaintiff wrote that Date I was Present at Elmore,
 And no Policy Exist in (2005), and don't exist (2008).
 Windows are slamming with the slightest Vibration.
